

IT Direct is a distribution company started in late autumn of 2004!

We are focused on high performance, enthusiast products!

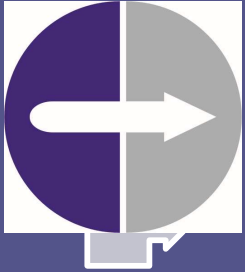

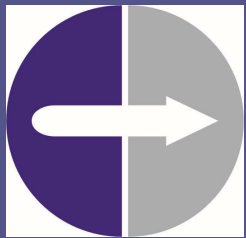

– values

- ▶ Honesty & Integrity – We expect nothing but honesty and integrity from all our partners and always offer the same back.
- ▶ Professional behaviour – We take care that the entire chain, from supplier to end-user is managed in a professional way.
- ▶ Effective communication – We offer and require effective communication, opened and honest in both directions, so that we all know what to expect and count on.
- ▶ Initiative – We encourage and respect all initiatives coming from our employees and from our clients and partners. Being opened to new ideas we keep our door opened for future opportunities.
